

APPLICATION FOR FARM ANIMAL ADOPTION

Please note the animals that the BC SPCA attempts to rehome are frequently the subject of cruelty investigations and / or seizures and as such may require extensive rehabilitation. It is for this reason that the Society cannot guarantee the health or temperament of any animals. The questions asked may be personal but answers are required and will be thoroughly reviewed by Cruelty Investigation Department staff as the BC SPCA endeavours to place the animals in caring homes where further intervention will not be required.
