

Humane Education Team Volunteer

Do you love wildlife? Do you want to volunteer for a rehabilitation centre that helps thousands of wild animals a year? BC SPCA Wild ARC is currently seeking volunteers to help develop and deliver wildlife education programs about wildlife welfare and cohabitation to adult audiences.

Responsibilities

- Deliver Wild ARC educational presentations to various community groups, like senior centres, and local organizations and businesses
- Answer questions from public regarding Wild ARC and the practice of wildlife rehabilitation, as well as local species natural history, wildlife welfare, and cohabitation with wildlife
- Help develop and improve existing presentation materials and content

Skills and experience required

- Demonstrated teaching experience or interest in skill development
- Comfortable speaking to groups and sharing information
- Friendly and engaging attitude
- No previous Wild ARC or wildlife knowledge is necessary, training will be provided

Time commitment

- This role is on-call, with events often scheduled during the day on weekdays, or in the evenings
- Volunteers should expect to be available for one presentation a month

What we hope you will gain from your volunteer experience

- A unique opportunity to help wildlife by raising awareness about reducing human impact on our wild neighbours
- A resume enhanced with public speaking and teaching experience
- An increase in your knowledge of local wildlife species, natural history, and urban wildlife issues and welfare

Requirements for the position

- 19 years or older (Students aged 16-18 may volunteer via school work experience program)
- Completion of online Volunteer Orientation
- Training shift shadowing a Senior Humane Education Presenter

Working Conditions

- Work inside with large groups
- Stand for two to four hour presentation
- Occasionally lift 30 pounds - Display materials

BC SPCA is an inclusive organization and will make reasonable accommodations to working conditions upon request. Please email us at info@wildarc.com if you have any concerns or questions.
